WE ARE NOT LIABLE.

Bayard on the New Orleans Tragedy.

THIS GOVERNMENT IS NOT LIABLE.

The Grand Jury Investigating the Work of the Mob—Jurors Publish Cards Explaining the Verdict—Mass-Meeting at Boston.

ITALY HAS NO CLAIM.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 18.—Ex-Secretary of State Bayard, when asked for his opinion of the killing of the four subjects of the king of Italy at New Orleans, said:

"Taking the newspaper reports of this event there is no basis upon which the Italian government can place a claim for indemnity. The disturbance was purely local and there was no affront offered to the representatives of the Italian government. Neither was there any discrimination between the persons of the United States and those of Italy. Bad as it was, all were used alike."

When asked if the settlement in the case of the massacre of the twenty-eight Chinamen at Rock Springs, Wyo., September 1, 1885, afforded a precedent for a claim of indemnity in this latter case, he said:

"No, I think not. The cases are not similar.
It is very doubtful if the perpetrators of the Wyoming outrages were American citizens. It occurred at a place and under circumstances that made it impossible to afford the Chinese protection from the lawless miners who assaulted them. In the settlement of the Chinese case the United States government agreed to pay a bill of $17,748.74 which the Chinese government rendered, but it was especially stipulated that the pay should not be understood as an acknowledgment of official obligation in that matter. The money was paid as a gratuity—not as under an obligation of treaty or principle of international law arising from a sentiment of generosity or pity to aid an innocent and unfortunate body of men."

The fact is these people are given the same protection in the United States as American citizens. The courts are open to them and judgment is impartial. Further than that the United States has no liability.
These outbreaks of violence are a part of the common risk to which all people are liable and which it is impossible to prevent.
The obligation of law or custom which I am aware that makes the United States liable for indemnity or reparation in this case."

NEW ORLEANS, March 18.—Judge R.
H. Marr, in the criminal court on Tuesday, charged the grand jury as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY—Since your last adjournment New Orleans has been the scene of a deplorable tragedy, which terminated in the death of eleven persons, prisoners in the custody of the law, charged with complicity in the assassination of David C. Hennessy, late chief of police of this city. I say a deplorable tragedy because, without reference to the causes, all good citizens must and do regret the taking of human life without warrant of law."

Pursuant to a call made by many citizens, published in the daily papers of Saturday morning, a large number of persons assembled on Canal street and proceeded to the parish prison; an entrance was effected by force, nine of the persons implicated in the killing of Hennessy were shot, and two of the three, with respect to whom there had been a mistrial, were hung, and the crowd that surrounded the prison quietly dispersed.
Plots of such gravity cannot be ignored by the courts or grand juries. I am compelled by my duty as judge to bring them to your notice, and I feel assured that they will receive at your hands proper attention and the calm, careful investigation which they challenge."

"It is not my purpose now to do more than give this matter in charge to you, and I do so with every confidence that there will be no hasty or ill-considered action on your part, and that the results of your investigation and deliberation will be in accordance with the facts, appreciation and estimate of the facts as they may come to your knowledge."

This month's grand jury is a representative body. Several of its members visited the scene shortly after the killing and it had probably formed its opinion of the affair before the judge spoke. The trouble will be to obtain any evidence upon which to indict. The prisoners and the police say they did not recognize anybody in the crowd.
The citizens who signed the call for the meeting were not all in the attacking party, and can hardly be asked to criminate themselves or each other. However, if the grand jury decides that any crime has been committed they will be no trouble in finding men to stand trial, as none of the participants conceal their presence.
Several witnesses were examined Tuesday, among them the mayor's secretary, chief of police and the secretary of the committee of fifty. To-day a number of witnesses will be heard, and the investigation of the jury bringing will be concluded.

Detective D. C. O'Malley has not yet been found, although he is being anxiously sought for. His wife is almost distracted, for, besides being annoyed by searching parties day and night, she claims to be ignorant of her husband's fate or whereabouts. Even the neighborhood suffers on account of the objectionable residence. Unknown men are found lying in wait on the premises.

Cards from the jurors are published in each newspaper issue. They all demand investigation now, and Juror Seligman, the foreman, being out of the city, most of them say that he was responsible for the verdict. Most of them who now disregard the pledges of secrecy made in the jury-room say that some of the jurors entered the jury box with the intention of acquit-ting, and never wavered in their purpose. The others were mostly boys or men of not much character, and yielded to any verdict rather than stand any more confinement.

The result of the events of Saturday is that the Provenzano and Matranga are accusing each other of being members of the Mafia, and from this some important facts may become known.
That the Matranga are prominent in this society of assassins there seems no doubt, but in the Hennessy case there was not sufficient evidence to implicate Charles Matranga.

Boston, March 18.—The Italians of Boston held an excited mass-meeting Tuesday evening at Faneuil hall to protest against the slaughter of their countrymen at New Orleans. Fully 3,000 representatives of that country were in attendance. Dr.
Brandis presided and nearly a score of speakers followed. The remarks were all expressions of the deepest indignation and not a few of them contained serious threats beneath their high rhetorical colors.
One speaker declared "that the Italians were weeping now, but the turn of the Americans would come next." Resolutions were adopted calling upon both governments to investigate the tragedy and demand reparation other than money.

Rome, March 18.—Popular protests against the alleged apathy of the premier, Marquis Di Rudini, in the matter of the massacre of Italians at New Orleans are numerous and vigor-

THE QUEEN WINS.

The Hawaiian Supreme Court Decides in Favor of Liliuokalani's Claim—Princess Kaula Appeal Rejected.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—The barketon John Smith arrived from Honolulu Monday. She brings news that the supreme court decided King Kala-kaua's ministry should resign and the queen's new cabinet has been officially announced. The ministry will be:
William Parker, foreign affairs; H. A.
Wideman, finance; C. N. Spencer, interior; W. A. Whitney, attorney general. All is now quiet at the island.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—On Monday, March 9, Queen Liliuokalani announced to the Hawaiian house of nobles the appointment of Princess Kaula as her apparent to the throne.
The princess is at present in England pursuing her studies. The appointment was approved by the nobles. The heir-apparent was publicly proclaimed and salutes were fired from the shore by a battery and by the war vessels in port.

Shot His Son Dead.

St. Louis, March 18.—A special from Clarksville, Ark., gives the details of a terrible tragedy occurring near Harrington, 9 miles above this city, Monday, which resulted in Harris Gilbert killing his son. Gilbert and a negro were engaged in a game of cards over which they disagreed. A quarrel ensued.
Gilbert walked to his house and on his return his son stepped between him and the negro to prevent the shooting.
Gilbert ordered his son to get away and upon his son's refusal he shot him, killing him instantly. He fled, but officers are in hot pursuit.

Wants a New Trial.

OTTAWA, Ill., March 18.—The case of Patrick O'Sullivan, sentenced to the penitentiary for life for participation in the murder of Dr. Cronin, came up in the supreme court on a writ of error from the criminal court of Cook county.
The appellant asks for a new trial. The case was submitted to the court without argument.

A Town Burned.

NEW HARTFORD, Ia., March 18.—The town of North Washington, 8 miles north of here, was almost totally destroyed by fire Monday night. The loss is estimated at $60,000. The conflagration is supposed to have been the work of incendiaries.

MEN COOKED TO DEATH

Lives Lost in a Tenement House Fire.

OTHER BIG STRUCTURES BURNED.

The Total Loss Will Reach Over $2,000-000, Nearly Half of Which Falls on the Clothing Firm of Benjamin & Co.

New York, March 18.—[Special]—By a fire in a tenement house on Allen street this morning, father and his two daughters were burned to death, and four other persons were seriously burned or hurt.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 18.—[Special]— One man was killed, two fatally, and a number of others seriously burned, by an explosion in the Crescent Steel Works this morning.

Joliet, Ill., March 18.—[Special]—The Joliet opera house burned this forenoon, the loss being $20,000.

New York, March 18.—A fire that started in the sub-basement of a nine story mansard roofed brick and iron building on the southeast corner of Bleecker and Green streets about 5:30 Tuesday night utterly ruined it, and, spreading to two buildings east of it, destroyed them, as well as another in the rear that ran from Green to Mercer street. It will be classed among the largest fires ever known in this city. Over $2,000,000 worth of property rolled skyward in smoke and flame in less than five hours. The building in which the fire originally started was owned by Man-del Bros., of Chicago, and was occupied by Alfred Benjamin & Co., one of the largest manufacturers of fine ready-made men's clothing in the country.
It was a stock company composed of Isaiah Josefa, A. Hochstader, Eugene Benjamin, David Hochstader and Jesse and Samuel Rosenthal.

The streets from which a view of the fire could be had had speedily become choked with people, and when the police reserves came to form the line they found they had to handle perhaps as big a mob as ever massed in the same amount of space in New York.

A six story building adjoining the great on the east, and occupied by M.
H. Rosenstein, ostrich feathers, was also attacked by the flames, which then moved on to the double brick building owned and occupied in part by Hammerslough, Saks & Co., clothiers, which extended through to Mercer street, and the fire speedily forced its way out on that side of the structure. It looked as if the whole block was doomed.

About 7 o'clock the roof of the building in which the fire started fell in with a crash, carrying floor after floor with it in its descent. A few minutes later the front wall, topped and fell into Bleecker street. One fireman was struck by a falling brick and seriously hurt. Finally only the eastern wall of the building was left standing. Then the roof of Hammerslough's building fell in, but the other walls remained intact. By 10 o'clock, however, the flames from the flames well in hand and there seemed to be no danger of its spreading further.

The losses roughly estimated are as follows: Benjamin & Co., building, $400,000; stock, $450,000. The building was erected eight years ago by Isidor Cohnfeld, the feather manufacturer, and was known as "Cohnfeld's Folly." Later he failed and about four years ago Alfred Benjamin moved into it. Ham-merslough, Saks & Co. lose $100,000 on the building and $250,000 on their stock; M. H. Rosenstein, building, $25,000; stock, $55,000; E.
V. Connell & Co. $75,000.

In the rear building, owned by Dr.
Macy, valued at $150,000, Sylvester Levacher & Co., hat makers, lose $150,000; M. V. Schwartz, and other tenants in rear buildings losses are estimated at $155,000.

Tuesday evening $100,000 damage resulted from fire in the storehouse of H.
B. Clavin & Co. 28 to 32 Leonard street; fully insured.

SMOTHERED IN THE SNOW.

Six Colorado Miners Lose Their Lives Under Rushing Avalanches.

DENVER, Col., March 18.—A special from Crested Butte, Col., says: Another snowslide was reported Tuesday morning. This time it is at Eureka mine of Treasury mountain. Charles Devine, J.
C. McQuarry and Joseph McCullough, the entire force in the mine, were killed and their bodies are covered with snow.
S. C. Robinson, who is having the property worked, went up there Monday evening and found the living cabin locked and in good shape, but the men were gone and the supposition is that they had started to come down. It is a case very similar to the Strader mine disaster. It is not known when the men were killed or where to look for their bodies.

Silverton, Col., has been completely isolated from the world for several weeks by banks of snow which vary from 10 to 40 feet deep. Communication was had with the camp Tuesday, when it was learned that an avalanche came down the side of the Belcher mountain last week, burying Samuel Hilton, Edward Horan, Wallington Evans, Thomas Evans, and Richard Hill under 50 feet of snow and rock.
Wallington Evans and Hill were taken out alive, but the others were smothered.

Railway Accident in Poland.

St. PETERSBURG, March 18.—Two railway trains laden with petroleum came into collision at Olkusz, Poland, Tuesday, and five train hands were instantly killed. One of the engines was overturned and the fire from its furnace ignited the petroleum, which exploded, killing two men who had survived the collision. The train caught fire from the burning petroleum and was wholly consumed.

The Medical Journal advises the careful examination and washing of celery before it is used. Many cultivators force the growth of the vegetable with night soil, which is full of typhoid fever bacilli. The plant's construction is such as to make it peculiarly apt to hold portions of this soil.

ABOUT LOCAL GERRYMANDERS.

Janesville is not the only city that Boss Wells has allowed his adherents to tamper with. In Ashtand the job was put through without even the formality of a citizens' meeting. For a time the democratic managers were comparatively reasonable. Being unseated, for the most part, to anything higher than ward or town politics, they naturally were little slow in taking hold of devils of a general nature. It was deemed best to hold them well in hand for fear of bad breaks and general confusion. Well attended to this. When in hand he choked all attempts at peevishness keeping them in good spirits by allowing jobs of a small nature but dear to the heart of some petty tricksters, to go through. Says the Ashtand Press in reviewing the situation:

"The gerrymander of Ashtand and other cities is a fair sample. Some city boss, or ward heeler goes to Madison, states his case to Boss Wells, the boss gives the order to do it. This government would be smart political Ashtands do not even have the courtesy or the sagacity to consult people whose affairs are being legislated. These same people know when to resent an insult, and they are prepared to do so.

The next move, of course, will be to gerrymander the state. The capacity of the legislature is supposed by the boss to be equal to the emergency now, as a result of training.

Already signs of dissolution are seen in the democratic ranks, however. The entering wedge is well started, and a vigorous and continued hammering will split the democratic party of Wisconsin, and consign it to sure defeat.

PAYS TO CARRY A KNIFE.

The average New Orleans negro is a better citizen by large odds than the still less wild member of the Mob. More than once, however, there have been from two to a dozen defenseless negroes shot to death in Mississippi and Louisiana for no other crime than voting the republican ticket. But there was no foreign or domestic government to demand reparation, and the secretary of state never sent a message to the governor on their account asking for protection to others of the same race, and demanding that the perpetrators of the outrages be punished. This is the disadvantage of being an American citizen on American soil.

The noted trial of the Rev. Howard MacQuerry, an Episcopal minister, of Cleveland, on charges of heresy, closed with a verdict of guilty, and he will be compelled to leave the church. His heresy consisted in his belief in the immaculate conception and the physical resurrection of Christ. He holds that Christ arose spiritually, not physically, hence the heresy.

A writer in the Chicago Inter-Ocean claims that St. Patrick was an Englishman, and wants to know why Irishmen continue to celebrate the day. To which Pat Grant adds a long article in the endeavor to prove that St. Patrick's position would to-day result in his excommunication.

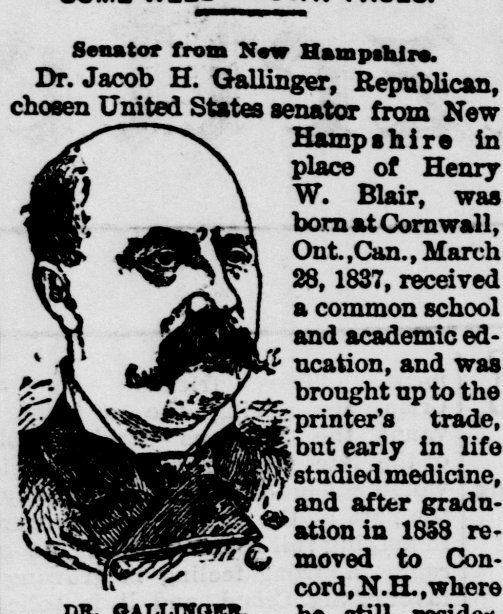

For a paper that "strenuously avoids dictation in politics," our esteemed contemporary is doing very well. Its attempt to read out of the democratic party all who support a democrat on a law-and-order platform, is provoking considerable comment.

Preservatives of Iron.

After a series of laborious investigations into the effect upon iron of the various preservative substances, Professor Lewes has come to the conclusion that protectives of the class of tar and its derivatives, such as pitch, black varnish, asphalt and mineral waxes, are among the best. The small quantities of acid and ammoniac salts which frequently occur in tar and tar products must, however, be removed. If, in addition to this, the class of substances mentioned is applied hot to warm iron an enamel is found on the surface of the iron, which is not like other coatings, microscopically porous, and therefore pervious to water.

Spirit or naphtha varnishes are condemned by Professor Lewes; varnishes to which a body has been given by some pigment, generally a metallic oxide, are preferable to the last class if the solvent used is not too rapid in its evaporation, and if care has been taken to select substances which do not themselves act injuriously upon iron, or upon the gums or resins that are so blended together.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

He took high rank in the profession. He was a member of the state house of representatives in 1873-75, of the constitutional convention of 1876, and of the state senate in 1878-79 and '80. In 1884 he was elected to congress, and was re-elected in 1886.

LOST AT SEA.

Many Italian Emigrants Drowned in Gibraltar Bay.

GIBRALTAR, March 18.—The British steamship Utopia from Italian ports bound for New York with 700 Italian immigrants on board collided Tuesday with the British ironclad Rodney, anchored in Gibraltar harbor, and sunk soon afterward off Baggly Staff. A south-west gale was blowing at the time of the collision. The Utopia sunk within a few minutes. Boats were immediately lowered from the British ironclad and also from the Swedish man-of-war Freya. These boats rescued 189 persons, who are now on board the Rodney. A number of others were rescued are lodged in government buildings on shore. It is reported that the crew of the Utopia were saved, but that over 200 passengers perished.

APPLAUSE FOR GLADSTONE.

Enthusiastic Crowds Cheer the Statesman as He Embarks for Hastings.

LONDON, March 18.—Mr. Gladstone received a tremendous ovation Tuesday. He was leaving Charing Cross railroad station for Hastings when an immense crowd gathered at the depot in order to witness his departure. Fired by enthusiasm, the crowd, cheering itself hoarse after Mr. Gladstone appeared, broke down the barriers and made a rush for the "grand old man," cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs as if mad with joy to see the veteran statesman. A number of the enthusiastic admirers of Mr. Gladstone, not content with demoralizing the depot with their outbreak of admiration, scrambled up on top of the cars of the train which was to take Mr. Gladstone out of town, and there they stood and yelled and cheered and waved until the train starting suddenly threw several of them down upon the tracks and platform. Two men were so seriously injured that they had to be taken to Charing Cross hospital, and several others were badly cut and bruised. The railroad station fairly shook with cheers as the train bearing Mr. Gladstone moved out of the building on its way to the sea.

Upon his arrival at Hastings Mr. Gladstone received a perfect ovation. The streets were brilliantly decorated with bunting and the veteran parliamentarian was welcomed in truly royal style.

PATRONS OF INDUSTRY.

Delegates Gather from All Parts of the Union and Canada for an Important Convention at Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., March 18.—The biennial session of the supreme association of Patrons of Industry commenced here to-day. The convention will comprise about 150 delegates, representing nine or ten states of the union and Canada. A few of the delegates are already here, and enough has been said to indicate that all the present supreme officers are likely to be superseded. The most important problems to come up are the question of independent political action and the formation of a close working alliance with the other important farmer and labor organizations. The proposed union will amount to a practical amalgamation of the Farmers' Alliance, Patrons of Industry grangers and the leading labor organizations.

SILK IMPORTERS ASK.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Lehman & Co., importers of dry goods in New York, have made a general assignment. Nathaniel Myers, the assignee, said the unsecured liabilities would approximate $350,000. The deficit, he said, is about $22,000. Of the liabilities $300,000 at least was owing in Europe. The firm was one of the heaviest silk importing houses in the city. Mr. Myers thought the firm had been growing insolvent for some time past as a result of excessive purchasing.

WORKING FOR ST. JOHN

Law-and-Order Democrats on His Side.

THEY WANT HIM ENDORSED

School Commissioner Fethers Declares That He Is Not a Candidate for Re-Election—J. H. Dearborn Has Also Withdrawn.

There was much quiet but telling work done today by the better class of democrats, who endorse the position of Mayor St. John, and his policy in administering the city government, in the hope of securing an endorsement of his administration by the democratic convention this evening. Hundreds of good and true democrats in Janesville will stand by the mayor in carrying out and furthering the principles upon which he has been called out as a non-partisan candidate, no matter what course the convention may adopt. They urge that there be no politics connected with the election of mayor this spring—that both parties stand together on the side of law and order.

A candidate for school commissioner will be appointed by the Third ward republican committee. O. H. Fethers has sent to the chairman of the committee the following letter of declination: JANESVILLE, Wis., March 18.—To the Third Ward Republican Committee: During my absence I was nominated for school commissioner, but, while thinking my party friends for their confidence, I cannot serve beyond my present term. I would cheerfully give the necessary time to the schools of the city but for the fact that I shall be away the greater part of the summer, and during the time the new school buildings are being built. If I accepted the nomination, I should be elected, I should consider it a duty to remain here and assist the school board in supervising the work, but having given two years to the city I feel that I may without impropriety ask that some other name be substituted for mine. Respectfully yours, O. H. FETHERS.

The democrats will meet in city convention this evening for the purpose of nominating a city ticket. The council chamber is the place of meeting and the time is 7:30 o'clock.

John Ryan will be in the contest for street commissioner before the democratic convention this evening, and his friends claim they will give the Fourth ward alderman a close race for the diploma.

J. B. Dearborn, the democratic candidate for alderman in the Third ward, declines to make the canvass at this time, and the ward committee is looking around to find a new man to place on the ticket.

Beloit democrats have made party nominations for the municipal offices. Hereafter the Beloit Democrats have adopted independent or citizens tickets. Having waxed strong by such a plan and becoming emboldened and emboldened by party victories in the state they now have no further use for local non-partisanism.—Rockford Republican.

TRIBUTES TO ST. PATRICK.

Entertainment at Columbia Hall and a Dance at Hibernia Hall.

St. Patrick's day was brought to an appropriate close last evening by the entertainments in Columbia and Hibernia halls, under the auspices of the two divisions of Hibernian societies. At Columbia hall a musical and literary program, rendered by home talent and at Hibernia hall a social reunion of members were the attractions.

There was a large attendance at Columbia hall, the platform being brightly lit with bunting and evergreens. Here Hugh M. Joyce was master of ceremonies, and the carefully prepared program as published in last evening's Gazette was rendered in a manner that won favor for all the participants. Musical parts were rendered by Miss Maggie Joyce, Miss Kate Morrissey, J. H. Burns, D. D. Bennett, Goleb Fallerman, Miss Sarah Hickory presiding at the piano. The reading, were by John Curran, Joseph Burns, Miss Mary Cantillon, J. H. Burns; and an address was given by J. H. Murphy, of Flatville, he taking for his subject, "The Past, Present and Future of Ireland." The entertainment was appropriately concluded by a well rendered vocal chorus, "God Save Ireland," the audience joining.

Members of the order of Hibernians then congregated at Hibernia Hall, where refreshments were served, and the social was made enjoyable until a late hour in the night.

Rev. Father Ward, of Beloit, spoke in St. Mary's church last evening, his topic being St. Patrick.

MRS. WHITE'S RECIPE.

Spinach Coloring, and How It Is To Be Made.

One of Mrs. White's recipes that attracted special attention at the cooking school recently held was that for spinach coloring. At the request of many The Gazette has secured the recipe, which is as follows:

Take over two quarts of spinach, remove the coarse stems, wash, drain and chop or bruise it. Lay a piece of cheese cloth over a potato strainer, put in a portion of the bruised leaves and press out the liquid; repeat until all are pressed. Beat this liquid gently, stirring all the time, and as soon as the green coloring separates from the water, pour it through a fine cloth which is laid over a strainer. The green curd will be left on the cloth. When the water has all drained through, rub the green pulp through the cloth into a plate. Dry it with an equal amount of sugar.

It speaks for itself is what a lady's aid of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the other day. A single bottle had cured her child of a most dreadful cough. It never fails to give speedy relief and permanent cure. One application of Balsam Oil will rub in cured me of rheumatism in the arm of two months standing. I never intend to be without it. H. B. KRAMER, Washington, D. C.

FINE WATCH SOLD FOR A DIME.

A Beloit Thief's Plunder Recovered in the Bower City.

A rather tough looking individual walked into P. Scherer's second hand store yesterday afternoon and asked the proprietor what he would give for a "time" watch. At the same he exhibited a fine watchman's time register, nearly new and apparently in good order. Scherer had some suspicions and made close inquiries as to where the watch came from. The fellow insisted that he found it down on the Beloit road. The watch is valued at fifty dollars, yet Scherer bought it for ten cents. This morning a gentleman from one of the Beloit machine shops arrived in the city and made inquiries of Marshal Acheson regarding the watch. The second hand store was visited and the watch recovered. It appears the fellow had been employed in the shop; knew where the watch was kept, and on Sunday night he broke in and secured it!

THE GUILTY MAN IN JAIL.

One Hundred Dollars Fine the Penalty Imposed for the Fearful Crime—A Case Where the Police Courts Seem Weak and Ineffective.

For some time he had been working about town by the day, and yesterday he assaulted the three year old daughter of a Beloit business man in a manner too heinous to describe. He was brought before Justice Booth last evening, pleaded guilty, was fined $100, and having no money, he was taken to jail.

Many Box-Car Tourists.

Train men complain that the passenger traffic is almost increasing. A week or two of warm weather, and travelers will be coming north in swarms. Some will be slowed away in coast cars, some hid away in lumber cars, and others nicely stowed away in threshers and steam boilers. But to make up for their non-official disposition, they will pay no fare, and bear the ignominy of being branded as "hoboes."

CARKEEK QUITS WRESTLING.

He Is Not Married, but Wants More Money.

Jack Carkeek is no longer a wrestler. "Expects to settle down now that he is married."

Not at all. The brawny Cornish man denies that he is married. When a reporter asked him about his rumored wedding he laughed.

"You see," said Jack, "I was sitting in a car with a lady when a friend of mine came along and I playfully introduced her as my wife. That's the story in short."

"But will you not wrestle again?" "Never."

"Because there's no longer any money in the business?" "Yes; that is, not enough. I can do better in business."

Carkeek wouldn't say what line he was going into, but he will make Beloit his home.

WILL THEY SHOOT IN SPRING

Prospects for New Game Law Somewhat Doubtful.

Janesville sportsmen who have been in Madison in the interest of the spring-shooting law, are considerably encouraged. They have argued that so long as spring shooting is allowed in all the neighborhood it might as well be the rule. The committee has not been able to agree on the subject, and two reports will come in with a fair prospect that a majority of the assembly will be for spring-shooting.

ALL SORROW PAST.

John Henry.

On February 2, 1891, Mrs. John Henry, mother of Dr. James Miller, of this city died at her home in Rock Prairie, aged seventy years. Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the bereaved husband joined his wife in that unknown land.

John Henry was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and was seventy years of age at the time of his death. He came to Rock county in 1849. In 1856 he was married to Mrs. Peter Miller. They resided on Rock Prairie and for thirty-five years lived happily together. Their separation by death was but brief. Mr. Henry was always a hard working man, a good neighbor and an upright citizen. He was a member of the Scotch Presbyterian church, of Rock Prairie, and died a steadfast Christian. He leaves one daughter, Miss Maggie Henry, who has been for years his constant companion. Upon the loving daughter, Death's hand, twice fell within six weeks, falls with crushing force. To her as to the step children, Dr. James Miller and Mrs. Alex. McGregor, of this city, the sincerest sympathy will be extended. She gave some pointed facts relating to the heathen temple now being erected in Japan, the cost of which is placed at eleven million dollars. She stated that twenty-one coils of human hair are being used in the temple construction, the total length of the coils being four thousand and hundred and twenty-seven feet, and the total weight 11,667 pounds. She related many little incidents relating to the missionary operations among the Japanese.

WHO OWNED THE HORSE?

This Is the Question That John Crow Is Asking as to a Midnight Visitor—A New Association of the Patrons of Industry.

FO. TIVILLE, March 13.—John Crow was the recipient of a young horse presented in the still hours of the night. The colt was found in the morning tied in a stall between two cows and having on the halter a note: "Tell no one you got this colt and you can have it. But if you make a disturbance remember that I shoot dead."

The colt showed marks of having been milled many miles. It bing with a rich pedigree running back to the finest and most renowned trotting stock in America, but there is a mystery still unexplained as to where it came from.
